Why Choose An Mor?

Both seaside authenticity and boredom-crushing activity hub, Bude exists in its own mellow bubble. Escape from reality as you soak up Cornish culture, breathing in the pure, clean air and listening to the crashing waves from An Mor's perfect beachside position.

The Atlantic Ocean, as a backdrop to your vows, makes for a pretty memorable celebration. Summer sun brings barbeques on the terrace and hazy evenings, making full use of the outside bar. As the nights draw-in we have a fully heated outside area, so you can enjoy the cosy coastal atmosphere.

Weddings can fly by, so why not extend the fun with your favourite people and plan to make some sand-covered memories with those lucky to be on the invite list? Enjoy some quality together time with a pre-wedding Gin making experience, or even a post-big day surfing lesson.

A smorgasbord of things that make Britain great combine for the ultimate homeland getaway: miles of enticingly sandy beaches, rugged cliffs, glorious green countryside, downs, woods and moors all beckon, and perfect sitting spots for the best fish and chips of your life. Spend some time with us; we have a few ideas of how our special corner of the country can entertain you:

- GRAB A WETSUIT and a board dude, it's time to make like a local and master the exhilarating art of surfing. Cue determined laughter and certainly making a splash, we guarantee you some smiley windswept cheeks and a strong desire for a pasty as you attempt to peel that wetsuit off.

WEDDINGS

- BUDE'S FAMOUS HISTORICAL SEA POOL is a short walk across the Downs from An Mor and has offered a safe swim spot since the 1930's. We highly recommend a dip in this unique and charming shelter from the might of the Atlantic.
- HIDDEN COVES, meandering coastal paths and secret sunset spots. Cornwall has emerged as a gastronomic heavyweight in recent years offering some fantastic options for atmospheric date-night dining. Fresh fish, just-caught lobster and artisan, local food are all here for you.
- THE CELEBRATED SOUTH WEST COASTAL PATH practically goes past the door. Enjoy the peace, quiet (and photo opportunities) that come from wide-open spaces and freedom to roam in such unspoilt territory. You can surely discover a quaint pub for a swift drink or delicious lunch before finding the path once more.
- ROCK POOLING never fails to entertain and excite all ages. You'll need a bucket, balance and a keen eye for crabs playing hide and seek amongst their colourful and plentiful hiding places. Our sister hotel Tommy Jacks contains an aquarium and oodles of information about the wildlife found on our shores, stop by for a drink and shed light on your findings.
- WHAT ABOUT A GIN MAKING EXPERIENCE? We are hugely excited to be offering gin making experiences at An Mor, and can even help you create your own, bespoke wedding gin.
- PLAY AWAY we're big on play here, there's bows and arrows in the woods, cliff climbing, cycle hire, golf, tennis, boating, sea fishing, kite flying, clay pigeon shooting and further afield the very cute 'Tamar Otter Sanctuary', 'Eden Centre', massive zip wire in 'Adrenalin Quarry' or 'Air Extreme' near Barnstaple, just under an hour away, where you can play Hole in the Wall game, Dodge ball and bounce your socks off, not to mention Big Sheep, Bodmin Moor and Cornwall's unofficial best loved sport - Poldark hunting.

Take a moment to relax in your modern and spacious room, safe in the knowledge that your own wedding planner is taking the reins and ensuring your day is everything you dreamed of. With a wide range of bespoke options, including a photo-booth, prosecco/champagne fountain and candy cart, or any cart you fancy come to that, An Mor lets you calmly ride the wedding wave all the way to happy ever after.

All you need is love (and the beach).
